

General Construction Residential

Fine-Line Cabinets reserves the right to change the construction, material, and/or design when deemed necessary to improve the product or certain materials normally used becomes unavailable for any reason beyond the control of Fine-Line Cabinets

Features and Specifications:

- All Cabinets are frameless style with dowel box construction.
- Front Edges – Shall be edge banded with a hardwood veneer that matches the other exposed surfaces.
- Finished Sides – Shall be  $\frac{3}{4}$ " Plywood with a natural wood interior face and an exterior face that matches the wood selection of the exterior finish.
- Tops and Bottoms – Shall be Plywood with a natural interior face and any exposed faces will match the exterior finish and wood selection.
- Backs – Shall be  $\frac{1}{2}$ " thick plywood with a natural wood face on the interior side. Backs are tongue and grooved into sides, tops, and bottoms.
- Cabinet Leg Leveling System – Every base and tall cabinet receives an adjustable leg leveling system to assist in proper installation and support of the cabinet.
- Shelves – shall be  $\frac{3}{4}$ " thick plywood with wood edge banding on all edges and natural finish. Each shelf is adjustable on  $1\frac{1}{4}$ " increments (32mm) and uses a steel pin core shelf rest to support.
- Drawers – Shall be  $\frac{3}{4}$ " Soft Maple dovetail drawer boxes with Blum Tandem full extension soft close undermount drawer slides.
- Door and Drawer Fronts – Shall be a combination of hardwood and plywood depending on the type of door style and wood selected.
- Hinges – are 120 degree opening Blum soft close European style 6-way adjustable concealed hinges.